

JUNE 6, 2015 Noon – 7 PM

Peconic Green Growth

Invites You to

NoFo BLUE + GREEN Tours + Lectures

Best Sustainable Practices for Bays, Farms, Backyards, and Gardens for Families and Businesses

HUB: Lectures/Panels, Vendors, Reception:

Port of Egypt and Heron Suites Hotel,
61600 Main Road, Southold, NY 11971

Ticket Price: $20 for members and advance sales; $25 day of tour

Available at <http://peconicgreengrowth.org>

Visit vendors, pick up information, and attend lectures, film at the Hub 12-7 PM, Reception 5 PM

Doors open at 11AM for tickets

TOURS Noon – 5 PM:

Briermere Farms

4414 Sound Ave., Riverhead <http://www.briermere.com/>

Hayride tours of the orchards in bloom. Learn about large scale composting and farming.

Tours: 1 PM and 3 PM

Gabrielson Farms LLC

196 West Lane, Aquebogue (for gps use Riverhead) www.gabrielsenfarms.com

Visit this “green” greenhouse, proving that protecting the environment also makes economic sense.

Tours: 1 PM 2 PM 3 PM

WATERWASH

Mattituck Inlet (Route 48, W of Love Lane <http://lillianball.com/waterwash/>)

Visit the first WATERWASH project, designed by artist Lillian Ball to retain and treat stormwater before it reaches the Inlet. Self-guided - explanatory signage on site.

Wickham’s Fruit Farm

28700 Main Road, Cutchogue <http://www.wickhamsfruitfarm.com>

Tour this 300-acre, historic, bicentennial farm at the edge of the sea, known for its best practices. While traveling by wagon, view an historic cider press and working beehive, and enjoy stunning views.

Tours: 1 PM 3 PM

Visit <http://peconicgreengrowth.org> for more information

8 Hands Farm

4735 Cox Lane, Cutchogue <http://www.8handsfarm.com>

Visit this sustainable, pasture-based farm operation, which includes pigs, chickens and the largest flock of sheep on Long Island.

Tours: 12 Noon 2 PM 4:30 PM

Cornell Cooperative Extension's Suffolk County Marine Environmental Learning Center

3690 Cedar Beach Road, Southold <http://ccesuffolk.org/marine/>

Coastal Plant Greenhouse Tour: Open house with staff tours Information about Cornell's marsh restoration projects, Spartina alterniflora grow out operation and eelgrass restoration efforts. Noon-3 PM

Rain Garden Demonstration: Educational rain garden demonstration. Participants will have to chance to assist in the installation, while learning about native plants and the importance of controlling stormwater runoff. 12:30 PM

Butterfly Garden Demonstration: An educational butterfly garden demonstration. Participants will have to chance to assist in the installation, while learning about the importance of creating habitat for our dwindling butterfly populations. 1:30 PM

Rain Garden and Wetland Restoration at the Home of Lillian Ball, Environmental Artist

2045 Lake Drive, Southold <http://lillianball.com>

On top of an intertidal dune, the roof channels stormwater through cisterns and rain barrels to a LI native plant and wildlife habitat. Through the control of invasive phragmites at Great Pond, native species have returned.

Tours: 4:00 – 5:00 PM

KK's The Farm

59945 Main Road (Rte. 25) <http://www.kkthefarm.com>

Visit this family organic farm using biodynamic practices, with all plantings grown from seed and no till methods, with biodynamic compost made on site. Healthy Soil=Healthy Plants=Healthy People

Tours: 12:30 PM 4 PM

Cindy Pease Roe Art Studio

Hanff's Boatyard, 190 Sterling St., Greenport www.cindypeaseroe.com

Surrounded by the magic of a boatyard, learn how Cindy transforms beach debris into works of art while educating people to the dangers of litter.

Open house: Noon – 4:30 PM

The Garden Fusion

540 Rocky Point Road, East Marion <http://thegardenfusion.com>

Learn about organic practices at herb farm.

Tours: 1PM 3 PM

Pilot Wastewater Treatment Installations for Homes

Visit individual, enhanced wastewater treatment systems being tested by Suffolk County. Locations will be shared at the lecture on wastewater treatment at the Hub site.

Visit <http://peconicgreengrowth.org> for more information